Want to Learn About and Work with Nonprofit and Civil Society Organizations in Canada or Mexico?

Apply to be a DCSCS* trilateral exchange student!

- Learn about nonprofit organizations, governance and civil society in Canada and Mexico
- Take innovative case-study-based nonprofit courses designed specifically for the program
- Study with teams of local Canadian and Mexican exchange students
- Gain hands-on experience with a civil society organization in a cross-cultural setting
- Receive transferable credits
- Receive a $3,000 stipend
- Pay only $300 in UW program fees ($0 tuition while on exchange!)

Where:
Carleton University, Ottawa, Ontario
Centre for Voluntary Sector Research and Development
OR
El Colegio Mexiquense, Toluca, Mexico

When:
UW’s Winter & Spring Quarters
(January - May at Carleton; mid-February – mid-June at El Colegio Mexiquense)

 Application Deadline:  Monday, October 13, 2008 **

For more information, please visit:
http://tools.evans.washington.edu/research/nbec/education/index.php#Exchange or contact:

Julita Eleveld
Nancy Bell Evans Center
Evans School of Public Affairs
University of Washington
203 Parrington Hall
Telephone: 206-221-4629
Email: julita@u.washington.edu

Minimum Application Requirements
1) Full-time, registered graduate student or undergraduate junior or senior status at UW
2) 3.0 minimum GPA
3) Ability and eagerness to live abroad
4) Be a United States citizen or hold a green card

* Developing Civil Society Education via Case Studies: A North American Perspective (DCSCS) is funded by the Fund for Improving Postsecondary Education (FIPSE). The exchange program is supported by the Nancy Bell Evans Center on Nonprofits & Philanthropy, Evans School of Public Affairs, University of Washington.